Argonaut

Thirty-four years ago, in 1928, two sisters, Elizabeth and Emma Lenhardt, entered a contest at Garden Grove High School. The contest was begun in order to discover a school song. The two sisters submitted words and music for a song which later became our alma mater. The prize in the contest was five dollars. The two sisters captured the spirit of Garden Grove, a spirit which has become a tradition. The two sisters, now Mrs. Emma Reed and Mrs. Elizabeth Miller, still reside in Garden Grove. We respectfully dedicate the 1962 Argonaut annual to these former Argos. We trust the spirit of honor and devotion will be reflected in this Argonaut.

Board of Trustees

The Garden Grove High School District Board of Trustees. William B. Whitlow, Joe Nathan, Nathan Karnak and William B. Whitlow.

Governing Garden Grove High School is the Board of Trustees. The men who make up this board often decide the "yes's" and "no's." These are the people who granted funds to the campus of the Argonauts.

Mr. James Cherry served again as superintendent for Garden Grove High School. He has been teacher, principal, and superintendent in San Mateo County Schools. He took keen interest in the school and its instructors during the school year of 1961-1962.

Advisors to the Principal

MR. OSCAR GROVES

Dean of Boys

Mr. Oscar Groves joined Garden Grove in 1961 as Dean of Boys. His pleasant smile and efficient manner have contributed to a successful school year.

MRS. MARY McCLAIN

Vice Principal

Mrs. McClain left Garden Grove in 1959 and joined the staff of a rival school as Dean of Girls. Now she is again with the staff of Garden Grove, serving as Vice Principal.

MR. LARRY REED

Business Manager

Garden Grove readily broke in her new business manager. In his first year Mr. Reed faced the Handling of school funds and administering books to new students. Another major part of his work was returning the numerous lost books.

Attendance Office

MR. OSCAR GROVES
Administrator of Attendance

Absence may make the heart grow fonder, but it means a great deal of work to the cheerful attendance office staff. Administrator Groves and his staff labored through virus epidemics and floods of spring to maintain order and efficiency. Of special note, the dulcet tones of Mrs. Mandeville filled each room with echoes of music and club meetings.

Mrs. Avis Jahn, Mrs. Rose Mandaville, Mrs. Helen Brown, Mrs. Ruth Gable, Mrs. Marie Marshall

Keeping the school functioning smoothly and efficiently is the task of the office staff. Answering telephones, keeping student records, and running of mimeographed materials are a few of their duties.

Guidance Office

MR. CHARLES SHORTRIDGE

Registrar

With both a large enrollment and shift of students, the registrar, Mr. Charles Shortridge, was kept quite busy. Although there was at first a busy time, our high school was kept running smoothly through the persistent work of Mr. Shortridge.

Mrs. Monu Callis, Mrs. Sally Cox

Serving as a counselor, Mrs. Carroll was kept busy helping students change classes, schedules, and other business about the campus. With Freshmen, Sophomores, Juniors, and Seniors, the "Busy Signal" was often given to those trying to see her.

QUEEN RANDI MAGILL

Sparks flew during the activities that preceded the gloom and happiness of the crowning of the Homecoming Queen. From Seniors down to Freshmen, each class "sweats blood in the frenzy of parties, raffles, and car washes. The sophomore class is victorious in the end and charming Randi Magill is Queen. The Senior Class, which takes second place, is represented by beautiful Georgie Matous. Juniors are pleased to know darling Sharon Lassen wins third place honors. The Freshmen win fourth and are proud of the beauty who represents them, Jamie Oughton. The loss of a game, but the gain in spirit, sounds out with the singing of the Alma Mater.

Southurne Nocturne was the theme of the annual Girls' League Co-ed Dance held at Fullerton Junior College student lounge. The dance reached its climax with the crowning of John Sullivan, who earlier had been chosen by a vote taken of all female Argonauts. John and his sponsor, Alyce Price, were accompanied by the other candidates in a waltz which followed the crowning of the King. After dinner, and a night of dancing, couples left floating on clouds of memories.

Argonaut of the Year

Garden Grove compiled its best won-lost record in the school's history. Varsity and J.V. teams combined winning 25 games with only one loss. Here is a list of the games. The Argonaut of the Year was Tim Casey, Varsity. The Most Improved Player was Tom Carter. The Varsity team defeated Parkview 5-0 in the Championship game. The J.V. team was expected to take a water polo trophy because of the loss of so many players at graduation. However, the rapid development of the team, it sparked by the leadership of Bill Watkins, Dennis West, and Tim Casey, gave our school a team that fought back in many games for decisive victories after trailing at half time.

Time flies like an arrow! I thought I landed in California just a few days ago. Everything around me was strange and new. My heart beat high in expectation of new experiences laying ahead of me. New experiences came without letting me pause for a moment to realize the passing of time.

Boy, didn't I do a lot of things within only nine months! I went to dances, and I learned to stomp and twist. I even paid a whole dollar to stomp to Dick Dale and the Deltones' music.

But more than anything else, I am most thankful to Garden Grove students and the Templeton family for letting me have such a wonderful year.

"Getting to know you. Getting to like you.

Getting to like all of you

Getting to feel free and easy and know what to say

Oh, isn't it a pity that I have to leave soon when I want to know more about you?"

Oh well, at the same time I'm anxious to go home, too

Thank you Argonauts for having me. I'll never forget you

Dear Friends of Garden Grove High:

It is for me an honor and a pleasure to appear in this wonderful annual. I will take advantage of this opportunity to tell you what I heartily feel

When I came to Garden Grove, I did not meet you until classes started. Later on we became acquainted and now you are part of myself. I lived with you at school, in parties, at the games, everywhere. I enjoyed visiting numerous places in California, but above all, I got to know you well.

Thank you, students and faculty. I will always remember you and Garden Grove High School with affection

CARLOS JAREN

Argentina comes to Garden Grove.

The first wonderful experience after my arrival was the life with my American family. In Germany the war left me with only a mother and a grandmother with whom I live; so I really enjoyed the life in a big family with my foster parents, my brother Clinton (senior) and my sister Margaret (freshman), and little brother Everett (kindergarten).

The second great event was entering Garden Grove High School. It is so different from European schools that it cannot be compared. However, the thing I am most impressed with is the variety of clubs, the Student Body Government, and the firm democratic way matters are handled. In my German school. I am a member of the Student Co-Administration. I can tell you we envy the American students because of their "government" powers, and the actual respect teachers as well as students themselves show toward this.

A bird in the hand

Being one out of thirty-nine students from the United States to be sent to Brazil, I spent nine weeks in the most beautiful city in the world - Rio de Janeiro. My family consisted of my parents and my three brothers, ages 17, 18 and 20. I learned Portuguese very quickly because none of my family spoke English.

During those nine weeks I attended school (and earned a diploma), traveled to the new capitol of Brazil and Caracas, and recorded my experiences. With my remaining time, I went to parties and spent many hours at beautiful beaches.

The Brazilian people are very friendly, and they always made me feel at home. I feel this experience gave me a first hand view of the problems we face in Latin America and thus increased my understanding of people.

Most Worthy

JOHN SULLIVAN

HARRY ARNOLD

Truly a symbol of Garden Grove High School, John Sullivan was a familiar figure at all student activities, athletic events, assemblies, public and community events. The office of student body president requires long hours of planning, sacrifice of time, and devoted interest to the welfare of the school. And as student body president and student of Garden Grove High School, John Sullivan most able represents the virtues and traditions of Most Worthy Argonaut.

Competing with John Sullivan were Harry Arnold and John Wurster. Both students exemplify the qualities of academic excellence and scholastic interest which are the hallmarks of outstanding Argonauts. As runnersup to John Sullivan, Harry Arnold and John Wurster represent the all-around excellence of Most Worthy Argonauts.

GLENELLEN COOPER

SANDY LAFONTAINE

MARCIA OWEN

Combining beauty, intelligence, and loyalty to Garden Grove High School, Glenellen Cooper represents the traditional unity of scholar and student. Her unswerving sense of responsibility to the student body and to her studies, and her genuine excellence of character, all mark her as Most Worthy Argonaut for 1962. Perhaps first among all of her accomplishments is her selection as Miss California Junior Miss for 1962.

Sandy LaFontaine and Marsha Owen challenged Glenellen Cooper for the title of Most Worthy Argonaut. Their undivided efforts to serve Garden Grove High School in any capacity illustrate the qualities of pride in Garden Grove High School, and desire to further the aims of the school as an institution.
